Business Seminar raises money for Acorns

On 6th December, Acorns Children's Hospice was presented with a cheque for £2000 by Jim Willis, Chairman of Clarke Roxburgh Insurance Brokers. The donation was made on behalf of local businesses attending a seminar run by Clarke Roxburgh with the aim of increasing awareness of "stress in the workplace".

Fran Winterbourn, who received the cheque on behalf of Acorns, said "I was delighted to receive this money. At Acorns we are proud to be helping about 500 families at this time, however to provide this service we rely heavily on the generosity of local people and organisations. I would love to see even more local businesses creatively finding reasons to donate money."

Jim Willis said "As an established business in the area the team at Clarke Roxburgh feel it is important to support local organisations. When we decided to hold the Stress Seminar we thought that making a donation to Acorns, rather than spending the money on traditional marketing, was a great way to encourage others to participate. The team at Acorns do an amazing job and we are pleased to be able to support them."
