

CLARKE
ROXBURGH

Insurance Broking, a Booming Business!

Clarke Roxburgh Insurance Brokers, one of the leading independent brokers in the Midlands region, continues to expand its operations with the opening of its' eleventh office, on the Enigma Business Park in Malvern.

Mike Hayward, Managing Director said "The Enigma Business Park is an additional site for us in Malvern. We will continue to occupy our existing premises in Belle Vue Terrace, as a town centre location is vital for our customers to be able to visit us."

"The new office provides the increased capacity we need to accommodate our growing customer service teams. Clarke Roxburgh is well known as an established broker across the region, but we also have an increasing number of personal and business customers nationwide."

As business continues to thrive, Clarke Roxburgh expects to create an additional 40 jobs in Malvern over the next couple of years. Mike Hayward continues "Our business success is in large part due to the loyalty of our customers - local businesses and residents. We are pleased to be able to contribute to local prosperity by creating further employment opportunities here."
